Girls

Skirts, skorts and shorts may be no shorter than 3" above the top of the knee cap.
Girls may layer solid-colored camis or tank tops under their polo shirts.

Chapel Dress Guidelines

On chapel day (Wednesdays), girls must wear a uniform skirt, or skort with any school approved uniform shirt/blouse.

Accessories

Girls may wear earrings in ears only. Earrings should be conservative in size and style. Earrings that are large, dangling or swing freely must be removed for P.E. No more than two earrings may be worn in each ear at any time, including ear clips. Other complimentary jewelry may be worn, but not in excess. Girls may not wear hats except on approved occasions.

Make Up

Make up must look natural (i.e. soft tones of lipstick, eye shadow/liner, and blush). Nail polish should be well kept and appropriate in color (dark colors are considered inappropriate). Pastel colors are acceptable as well as use of multiple colors. School administration reserves the right to determine inappropriate make up.

Boys

Shorts may be no shorter than 3" above the top of the knee cap and no longer than 4" below the knee cap.

Chapel Dress Guidelines

On chapel day (Wednesdays), boys must wear uniform slacks and collared uniform shirts. On a VERY HOT DAY (90 degrees or above in Santa Ana), boys may wear uniform shorts on chapel day.

Hair

Hair is to be no longer in front than the eyebrows. The sides can be no longer than the bottom of the ear. The back may be no longer than the shoulders. The rule is applied to the "actual" length of the hair in all cases, not the style. No extreme fad hairstyles, including shaved lines or tails will be accepted.

Accessories

Boys may not wear earrings at any time. Boys may not wear hats except on approved occasions. Chains hanging from pants and/or shorts may not be worn. Necklaces are acceptable.

Boys and Girls

Pants and shorts are to be worn at the waist and must be appropriate size. "Baggy" and/or "off the hips" fit will not be accepted.

A coordinating belt must be worn with all pants, shorts, and jeans having belt loops. Shirts do not have to be tucked in.

HAIR COLOR

Hair may be highlighted to compliment the natural color, (no extreme colors – i.e. white, yellow, maroon, black, etc.) and must be maintained. Administration reserves the right to determine acceptable color change.

FOOTWEAR

ALL footwear must have enclosed heels or heel straps. Socks or peds must be worn at all times. (Exception: sandals may be worn without socks.) Girls may wear solid colored tights, knee highs or nylons which coordinate with the school uniform. NO SKATE SHOES!!

LUNCHPAILS / BACKPACKS / ETC.

When purchasing these items for school, please adhere to the basic guidelines for appropriate subject matter. For example, Batman, Pokemon, Bart Simpson, Beavis & Butthead, Tasmanian Devil, Pinky and the Brain, etc., are not appropriate. When in doubt, please contact the school office for clarification.

OUTERWEAR

There are no restrictions on heavy winter coats (i.e. ski, down, wool, etc.).

Additional Outerwear

All other outerwear (i.e. sweaters, sweatshirts, vests, windbreakers, lightweight jackets, pull-over hooded / un-hooded fleece jackets) must be plain and solid Black Only with no logos other than the CCS logo!

CCS Athletic Department Sweatshirts will be allowed.

FRIDAY "BLUE JEANS" DAY

Every Friday will be "blue jeans" day.

Students will be permitted to wear this denim in pants, shorts, skorts, skirts, jumpers, or overalls. Students not participating in "jeans day" will be required to wear their regular school uniform. Shirts must be any school approved uniform/school sponsored shirt. Belts must be worn and no hats will be permitted. No baggy, torn, ragged hem, or worn out/faded denim is acceptable.

FREE DRESS DAYS

Occasionally CCS will announce "Free Dress" days. The following guidelines are to be adhered to:

Acceptable dress includes:

Hats (to be removed inside buildings), sweats, un-tucked shirts, regular shorts (no more than 4" above the knee), shoes without socks. Dresses, skirts, jumpers, etc., must be uniform dress code length (2" from top of knee cap).

Unacceptable dress includes:

Any clothing that is too tight or see-through, worn, torn or ragged looking, tights or leggings worn as pants, bike shorts, and "baggy" style pants, dresses with spaghetti straps, shirts with derogatory slogans, tank tops, or any shirt which exposes the tummy, are not accepted.

Sandals without heel straps may not be worn at any time.

FREE CHAPEL DRESS/PICTURE DAY FREE DRESS

Guidelines for Free Chapel / Picture Day Dress include:

For Boys:

Dress slacks with belt (NO JEANS), and any collared shirt are acceptable. No hats will be permitted.

For Girls:

Dresses, jumpers, and skirts are acceptable and must be uniform dress code length. Hats, spaghetti strap dresses, and jeans are not permitted.

Dress Code Violation Information

The uniform dress code applies to all school functions and activities unless otherwise instructed. Please understand your obligation to cooperate. Dress guidelines remain the same from September through June. When purchasing skirts, skorts or shorts, allowance for growth should be considered. Final decisions on Dress Code will be made by the administration. "Out of Uniform" specific procedures will be followed. Please check with your individual classroom for discipline policies.

A Jr. High student in violation of the Uniform Dress Code risks detention, or further action by the administration.
