Our Past: John and Sheila Tuggy
Calvary Missionaries Serving with Wycliffe Bible Translators in Peru

John is the son of Harold and Dauphine Tuggy. They are considered Calvary's first missionaries who served in Venezuela for over 60 years with the Orinoco River Mission. John and Sheila have served for 50 years with Wycliffe Bible Translators, doing translation work among the Candosi people. They have completed and dedicated the New Testament in that language. They are now working on the Candosi Old Testament.

Our Present: Karl and Sun Dablfred
Calvary Missionaries Serving with OMF in Thailand

Sun has been part of our missionary family since 1999, serving first with ELIC and now with OMF in Thailand. Sun and her family fled from the killing fields of Cambodia and arrived as refugees in California in 1999. She sensed the Lord calling her into missions after high school, and has served in several countries in Asia including Laos, China and her first home, Cambodia. Karl spent two years in Thailand teaching English and helping with evangelism and discipleship. Karl and Sun married June 11, 2005. They are being commissioned today, and leave for Thailand at the end of this month.

Our Future: Oleg Reutki, National Director-Moldova for New Hope International

Calvary Church has been in partnership with New Hope International for just under ten years. Their ministry provides printed Christian materials for churches in Romania, Ukraine and other former Eastern European nations that we have helped to support. Oleg Reutki was born in the city of Chisinau, in the former Soviet Republic of Moldova. He came to know Jesus in 1988, while his father was still a member of the communist party, and had to suffer for his faith for three years. He has started a Master of Arts program at TCM Bible Institute in Austria, as well as two other Masters programs by correspondence, at European Bible Seminary and Tyndale Bible Seminary. He has also served with Youth for Christ in Moldova. Oleg is married to Marina, and they have two children: Marcus and Carina.

Family Missions Trip to Tijuana, Mexico February 9-11, 2007

Please consider joining us as a family for a memorable ministry weekend where we will build a home for a needy family with Youth With A Mission/ Homes For Hope in Tijuana, Mexico, February 9-11, 2007! You bring the family, the finances and the labor - YWAM handles everything else (building materials, interpreters, master builders, meals and lodging and selecting the family).

- Fantastic family and friend building event.
- "Hands on" participation - more than just writing a check; you actually build the home alongside the family!
- Live out your values.

Contact team leaders, Neil and Shameeron Paur, at 288-0836, to find out more information and save a spot for this weekend. Space is limited to 10 families per house and a deposit is required to hold your spot.
