Mark 4:35-41

35 On that day, when evening came, He said to them, "Let us go over to the other side."

36 Leaving the crowd, they took Him along with them in the boat, just as He was; and other boats were with Him.

37 And there arose a fierce gale of wind, and the waves were breaking over the boat so much that the boat was already filling up.

Mark 4:35-41

38 Jesus Himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke Him and said to Him,

"Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?"

39 And He got up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Hush, be still."

And the wind died down and it became perfectly calm.

Mark 4:35-41

40 And He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?"

41 They became very much afraid and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

Psalm 89:8-9

8 O LORD God of hosts, who is like You, O mighty LORD? Your faithfulness also surrounds You.

9 You rule the swelling of the sea; when its waves rise, You still them.

Psalm 107:28-29

28 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and He brought them out of their distresses.

29 He caused the storm to be still, so that the waves of the sea were hushed.

30 Then they were glad because they were quiet, so He guided them to their desired haven.

John 3:16-17

16 "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life.

17 "For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him.
